Railways asks cement companies to unload goods from freight trains to free up rakes for essentials

PTI, New Delhi, APR 07 2020, 11:12 IST | UPDATED: APR 07 2020, 11:12 IST

The Railways has asked cement firms to offload their goods from freight trains so that they can be used to supply essential commodities to various parts of the country, sources said.

With the lockdown in place, the national transporter is using about 50-60 rakes per day to ferry food grains but there is demand for more, the sources said.

no hurry to unload them as the construction business has come to a standstill due to the coronavirus outbreak.

With the railways having waived off its demurrage and wharfage charges, companies were not losing any money by not offloading their goods, officials said.

“These rakes with covered wagons are just lying there full of cement. Due to the lack of availability of labour, there is no construction work happening in the country, so cement companies are in no hurry to unload.

“We have told them that if they do not unload their goods in a couple of days, we will reinstate the charges for keeping our wagons waiting,” the official said.

Demurrage charges are levied for the detention of any rolling stock after the expiry of free time, if any, allowed for such detention. Wharfage is the charge levied on goods for not removing them from the railway after the expiry of the free time for such removal.

The Railways had waived off these charges during the lockdown period.

Officials said that given the huge demand for essential commodities across the country and with the movement of goods through roadways virtually negligible, it was essential to free up these trains to ferry essentials like fruits, vegetables, food grains, salt and sugar.

Sources said that the Railways is also in touch with state authorities to ensure that their goods trains are offloaded on time.

Sources said that the national transporter is facing a similar problem with goods trains carrying steel as there are no labourers to unload them.

During the 13-day period between March 23 and April 4, the Railways loaded and carried 1,342 wagons of sugar, 958 wagons of salt and 378 wagons/tanks of edible oil (one wagon contains 58-60 tonne consignment), according to the Railways.
